OUR STORY

Sage Café was born from a simple idea — to create a warm, welcoming space where great food, meaningful conversations, and a sense of community come together.

Located in the heart of Hazratganj, Lucknow, we're more than just a café. We're a place for dreamers, thinkers, friends, and food lovers. Whether it's a quiet coffee, a working session, a catch-up with old friends, or a celebration — Sage is your space.

We believe good food can brighten days, and the right company can make life a little more beautiful.
